A scion of the great powder house of Dupont has married an Irish barmaid whose praises all Queenstown sings. This may be much better than for an American girl to buy a foreign title with a no-'count hung to the end of it.

GENERAL GRUBS has made a rattling good campaign in New Jersey, and his friends go to the polls this morning feeling that he has a good chance to be elected Governor. The Democrats have found his name a good one to joke on but the last laugh is the best laugh.

BELNONT COUNTY Republicans must not allow their majority for Representative in the Legislature to be cut down by any of the Democratic tricks. The complimentary scheme is so thin that it should not deceive one of them. As for the ardent saloon efforts in behalf of the Democratic nominee-is the saloor a good leader for the people?

The Marion County Oil Field.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch reminds us that the Marion county oil field is not going to be a market-breaker. Bless your soul, that is just what we do not want. If we may be permitted to have a preference it will continue to be for oil as much above a dollar a barrel as you please. Then add the twenty-five cents a barrel premium which our oil brings, and West Virginia will soon be playing

Neither does it matter whether the drill shall ever develop a 1,000-barrel well. Plenty of fair producers of moderate size will do. The article from the Dispaych, printed in part on another page, shows that Pennsylvania oil men think enough of the field to put their money in it, so that its development is assured. That is all the home people Making due allowance for rosy reports under sircumstances of an exciting character, the men who own land or hold leases in Marion county are in a fair way to reap a comfortable harvest. Other West Virginia countles will show

well in oil when the drill gets to work

West Virginia is to be the succe of Pennsylvania as an oil producing State. The geologists believe it and the experts are putting up their money on it.
